

Minister Patricia Canady

Minister Patricia Canady is a native of Perry, Georgia where she has always been an active member of Oak Level Missionary Baptist Church. Minister Patricia Canady, born Patricia Ann King, November 26, 1955, on US Highway 41, not far from the original location of our church. As a youth she was baptized at Oak Level and began her service in the Army of Lord serving in the Sunday school, Women's Ministry Youth and Adult choirs. She was an avid softball player and a great fan of the game.

Minister Canady currently enrolled in National Baptist Congress of Christian Education, Jernigan Theological Studies Seminar. She also is studying Christian Ministry at the Warner Robins Regional Bible Institute.

Minister Canady was employed by the Houston County Medical Center until she retired with twenty year of faithful service in 2006. While working at the medical center, she always felt a need to support the spiritual needs of co-workers, patients and their families. In 1999 Minister Canady answered the call to the ministry and was licensed as a Minister of the Gospel on September 17, 2006. She has always participated in various outreach ministry programs to the local community and bible studies focusing on those that may be in the hospital or in a convalescent home. She is known to have a no sense attitude when it comes to the serving God's people and preaching the word. She is married to Roy Canady, of Warner Robins Georgia. She currently serves as one of the associated ministers at Oak Level Missionary Baptist Church. Minister Canady has three children, two sons Joseph Stokes of Perry Georgia and Leroy Williams of Warner Robins Georgia, one daughter Tahoni (King) Robinson, Perry Georgia , three grandchildren and one greatgrand son. Along with being Great Grandmother, Minister Canady, enjoys preaching, singing songs of Zion, and living life in the Spirit of God.

If it had not been for the Lord on my side tell be where would I be!!!
